

Evers & Sons Achieves 1.9 Million Safe Man-Hours and Earns Multiple Industry Safety Awards in 2025

January 14, 2026 at 11:15 AM EST

HOUSTON—(BUSINESS WIRE)— Evers & Sons Inc. closed 2025 with more than 1.9 million safe man-hours, strong execution across its Facilities, Fabrication, Pipeline, Maintenance, and Decommissioning & Asset Abandonment divisions, and expanded licensing into three additional states bringing approved operations to nearly 35 states.

Throughout 2025, Evers & Sons supported midstream infrastructure projects across multiple regions in the US. Work included both greenfield and brownfield projects, often requiring coordinated, multi-division support to meet schedule and project expectations.

The company's safety performance was recognized with several industry honors, including the GPSA Perfect Record Award and a GPSA Safety Award, acknowledging outstanding safety results in midstream operations. Evers & Sons also received the 2025 Work Safe, Texas Award, recognizing employers who demonstrate exceptional commitment to workplace safety. In addition, Evers & Sons' HSE Director was named a 2025 National Safety Council Rising Star of Safety, highlighting leadership excellence and impact within the safety profession.

As the company begins the new year, Evers & Sons remains focused on delivering safe, high-quality construction services to support their partners across the midstream energy sector.
